There does not appear to be any precedent to support the Swamiji's request. The constables can exercise no police powers outside Mysore & will be no more useful for purposes of "protection" than the Swamiji's private entourage. The employment of the police on other than police duties is also not free from objection.

The presence of the Mysore police though they cannot exercise police powers outside the State, may give a feeling of security to the Swamy. The Mysr Govt also recommends it and there is no objection to deputn the police as desired.
